

I urge the FCC to maintain the ban on in-flight cell phone use. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to predict the anger, rage, violence, etc. which could result if the ban were lifted. There is no NECESSITY for inflight cell phone use. Use in airports is bad enough, don't you think? Let common sense prevail.